

Web 2.0 Tools For The Classroom

Melissa Rosen

This session will explore free, online resources that will enhance your teaching and allow you to integrate technology with ease. This session will explore tools to use with your students. Some of the Web 2.0 tools we will look at include Live Binders, Word StashTerra Maps, Museum Box, and much more.

www.livebinder.com

<http://www.wordstash.com>

<http://quikmaps.com/>

<http://blabberize.com/>

<http://museumbox.e2bn.org/>

<http://www.xmarks.com/>

<http://delicious.com/>

<https://www.xmarks.com/>

<http://www.stumbleupon.com/>

<http://www.terraclues.com/>

<http://animoto.com/>

<http://nces.ed.gov/nceskids/createagraph/default.aspx?ID=e1c36682b83b4163bd29239463838599>

<http://cooltoolsforschools.wikispaces.com/>

<http://quizlet.com/>

<http://www.vocabahead.com/Home/tabid/37/Default.aspx>

<http://www.sumopaint.com/start/>

<http://www.polleverywhere.com/>

<http://pixenate.com/>

<http://www.xtranormal.com/>

<http://notepub.com/#welcome>

<http://animoto.com/>

<http://cooltoolsforschools.wikispaces.com/>

<http://www.studyblue.com/>