

Pre-Service Teachers

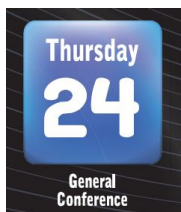

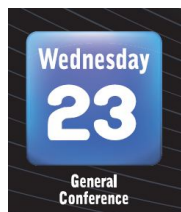

Register at www.iceberg.org

The mission of Illinois Computing Educators is to lead the educational community in enhancing learning through technology. Illinois Computing Educators is the leader in supporting and promoting innovative education for all. This year, the ICE Conference 2011: Celebrating 25 years of Transforming Education will be hosted at Pheasant Run Resort in St. Charles, IL February 22-25, 2011.

Special pricing available for pre-service teachers. Contact ICE at info@iceberg.org.

Full-Day Workshops
3 Ways to Tell a Story
Cool Tools for 21st Century Learners
Tech-4-Teachers: Finding Your Comfort Zone iPods for Education AND many, many more!

Exciting Breakout Conference Sessions Including:

- Using GarageBand in ANY Classroom
- Multimedia in the Classroom
- The World in Your Hands
- The ABCs of Interactive White Boards
- Rubrics for all Occasions

One Full-Day Workshop
or Administrator
Academy from 8:00-
2:30 PM

OR

One Half-Day Workshop from 8:00-2:30 PM followed by two Featured Presentations in the afternoon.

OR

Two Featured Presentations in the morning and Two Featured Presentations in the afternoon.

Keynote Speakers

Rushton Hurley is a teacher, principal, teacher trainer, educational researcher and now the director of <http://NextVista.org>. He will present Why This Technology Stuff Matters on Wednesday, February 23rd. He will also speak during the Spotlight Presentations on The Ease, Power and Cool of Multimedia and Getting Teachers to Adopt Technology-What To Do and What Not to Do.

David Pogue is the personal technology columnist for the New York Times, and writes a popular daily blog titled "Pogue's Posts". He is also an Emmy winning correspondent for CBS News. He will present The Digital Generation Comes of Age on Thursday, February 24th. He will also present A Mobile Show-and-Tell and David Pogue's Tech Update 2011 during the Spotlight Presentations. www.davidpogue.com